HORIZON GLOBAL'S ANGELA HOWARD SELECTED AS ONE OF RVIA'S 40 UNDER 40

Plymouth, Mich., (February 19, 2018) - The Recreational Vehicle Industry Association (RVIA) has recognized Angela Howard, manager of public and media relations for Horizon Global, as a member of its inaugural "40 Under 40". Howard is manager of public and media relations for Horizon, one of the world's leading manufacturers of branded towing and trailering equipment.

The 40 individuals were nominated by their peers and selected by members of the RVIA Trade Shows and Events Committee, and represent current and future leaders in the RV Industry who are under 40 years of age. Each exemplifies leadership at his/her company, shows a sense of community, inspires others, and supports the industry through his/her efforts.

"It's an honor to be chosen as a leader in the RV industry and to be in the company of so many other innovative and forward-thinking individuals," said Angela Howard, public and media relations manager for Horizon Global. "This industry has brought so much joy – and innovation – to so many over the years; I'm excited to help shape what comes next."

Howard started with Horizon Global in 2014 as the public relations and marketing communication specialist. She was promoted to public and media relations manager for the Company in 2016. Howard's most recent accomplishment was winning a Horizon Global Star Award for her work within the company.
