PLYMOUTH, Mich. (August 08, 2018) – REESE®, Tekonsha®, and BULLDOG® – three of the leading brands in the RV industry – will again participate in the Pennsylvania Recreation Vehicle and Camping Association (PRVCA) show. The annual event, held each year at the Giant Center in Hershey, Penn., is the #1 RV industry/retail show in the nation.

This year, Horizon Global will display several new products and features, including the Prodigy® P2 brake control with auto dimming from Tekonsha, as well as additional fits and weights of its acclaimed M5 fifth wheel hitch and its next generation Goose Box™ from REESE. Representatives from the Company will be in booths 383-385 to discuss the latest product offerings and answer questions. Horizon Global is also taking part in many of the anniversary celebrations, including the silent auction and product giveaway.

As in years past, Horizon Global will also be on hand to host a training seminar on Monday, September 10 from 1pm to 3pm in the Power Play room at the show. Attendees will learn about short bed towing solutions, weight distribution, and sway control from industry veteran, trainer, and current district sales manager Tom Romero. Industry techs in need of recertification hours can earn two hours by attending the seminar. Registration is free.

The show opens to the public on Wednesday, September 12 and runs through Sunday the 16. Tickets can be purchased online at PRVCA Tickets or at the door.
